

Invite a friend who doesn't go to church to attend a service or an activity at your church this month. Help your friend feel comfortable by introducing him or her to others at church and explaining (as needed) what's going on in the service or activity.