

Write notes of thanks to people in your community whose hard work may be overlooked (for example, trash collectors, mail carriers, school cafeteria workers, fast-food workers, or store clerks). As you write your notes, pray for each of the people.

Leave these notes where the people you are thanking will find them. Or better yet, hand deliver them so that you have another chance to say, "Thank you!"