

Write a letter or prayer poem to God today. Or challenge your family members to work together to write a letter or poem to God from your family.

If you write individual letters or poems, gather as a family to listen to those who want to read their letters aloud. If you write a family letter or poem, consider using it as a prayer for your family meals for a few days.