

MAKE A PALM SUNDAY CROSS

April 5, 2020

Palm Sunday is the first day of Holy Week, the last week of Lent leading up to Easter. On this day Christians everywhere remember Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Many church services include a procession with palm leaves or branches, like the ones people laid at Jesus' feet as he rode into the city.

Save your palm leaves from worship (or get some from a florist) to make palm crosses today. Put one cross where you will see it each day as a reminder of God's love. Give the others as gifts.

GO DEEPER: Did you know that two processions entered Jerusalem on the first Palm Sunday? Discover how these processions symbolize radically different ways we can live our lives today—Pilate's way and Jesus' way.
