

The Easter season, known as Eastertide, doesn't end on Easter Sunday but continues until Pentecost Sunday, which is May 31st this year. Today, Easter Monday, is a day that is celebrated in lots of fun ways—with egg-rolling races (U.S.), hiking (the Netherlands), and picnics (Portugal and Italy).

One Easter Monday tradition you can enjoy with your family is telling jokes. Learn more about the origins of this tradition. Then try out a few of these Easter jokes on your family and friends:

Why did the Easter egg hide?

It was a little chicken.

Why should you never tell an Easter egg a joke?

It might crack up.

What did one Easter egg say to the other Easter egg?

"Heard any good yolks lately?"

What do you call an Easter egg from outer space?

An egg-stra-terrestrial